

TRUE NORTH

Written by Zach Sarkis when going through a Wilderness Skills Instructor Course

*The recording of this song is not accurate to the melody that Zach wrote. We are in need of a new recording*

Lyrics:

*Sometimes in life I make turns without knowing,
the direction we're going, it happens all the time.*

*Sometimes in life I make turns without knowing,
the direction we're going, it happens all the time*

(Call and Response)

*East as the sun rise
South as the summer skies
West where the sun hides
North as the crow flies*

True north (high), True north (low)

Sky above and Earth below (clap on your laps)

The compass lies within, the compass lies within, the compass lies within...

Recording - Primitive Pursuits
