

WIND SONG

Origin: Written by Danielle Prizzi in spring of 2017. She was on a long walk, and gazed up at the wind moving through the branches and young leaves of red oak trees, then this song came to her.

*I can feel the heartbeat of the wind song, the wind song
I can feel the heart of the wind
I can feel the heartbeat of the wind song, the wind song
I can feel the heart of the wind*

*Teach me to fly and release my wings, wind song, wind song
Let me fly by my own beat, wind song, wind song.*

(Repeat to beginning)
