Position Summary

Wilderness Instructors facilitate the core aim of Primitive Pursuits; bringing groups of youth into natural areas, away from facilities and without modern gear, and engaging them in a self-directed inquiry into basic, personal and group survival needs. Their key role in this task will be to assist and instruct youth on survival skills in the wild including but not limited to: primitive technology, fire making, shelter construction and procurement of food and water. Wilderness instructors also mentor youth in naturalist skills and knowledge, promote stewardship and build healthful relationships in the outdoor environment. Wilderness Instructors may work with Growing Wild (3-5 yr olds) or Day Camp (5-14 yr olds).

Individuals who bring a diverse perspective and are supportive of diversity are strongly encouraged to apply.

Responsibilities

- Creating and implementing experiential environmental immersions for diverse groups of youth in the context of wilderness survival, living skills, naturalist skills and knowledge
- Role-modeling passion and enthusiasm around engaging with the elements of nature
- Facilitating group energy and responding swiftly to group needs in order to effectively manage and engage each participant in a positive experience
- Actively contributing to efforts of leadership team in planning, preparing, delivering and evaluating each week and each day of programming
- Representing the high caliber of the organization when speaking to parents, staff and participants
- Delivering high-adventure experiences while keeping an unfailing eye on the safety of each activity and each participant and co-worker in accordance with risk management protocols
- Working with ages between 3-15, day camp (potentially overnights too)
- Mentoring staff on a path to comfort and success among their peers and in potentially adverse environments
